Daily Nevada State Journal.

C. FOWNING, Editor and Proprietor.

EXPLANATORY.

Some of the Nevada papers have evidently conceived an erroneous impression in regard to the address and submitted State Constitution which were lately published in the JOURNAL at the instance of the State Board of Trade. Their presentation was designed to awaken interest in the subject of economic reform and constitutional revision, and to invite suggestions as to the best means to bring about the former, and to get the views of the people concerning the changes that are necessary, and the best method for effecting the latter. The submitted Constitution has never been endorsed by the Board nor was it presented as an expression of the views of a majority of its members. At the proper time when everybody has had an opportunity to be heard, the Board will probably take such action as may seem best for the economic and general interest of the State.

In the matter of consolidation of counties, some of the papers in the eastern part of the State are evidently laboring under the mistaken belief that the suggested boundaries have been settled upon and that if a Constitutional Convention is called, they will be adopted as a portion of the fundamental law. This is by no means a fact, and in the JOURNAL'S opinion there should be no county boundaries established by the Constitution of the State. It is a matter for legislative action, and all that is necessary for the Constitution to provide for, is to enable such changes in county boundaries by the Legislature as the people of the sections to be transferred may approve, and in such a manner as will leave no question as to the validity of such legislative acts. In fact, the Legislature already possesses such power, and has exercised it in at least a dozen instances since the organization of the State.

While the JOURNAL believes that there could be consolidations made which would be to the benefit of all of the people of the consolidated sections, it would not have it done without the consent of a majority of the people directly interested, who are the best qualified to judge of their own interests in the matter.

We are furthermore of the opinion that it was a mistake in introducing the subject at all in the submitted Constitution, for it was liable, as in fact it has, created the impression, to some extent, that a vote for a convention would be an endorsement of such boundary changes as are suggested therein.

But such is not the case. There is no more probability that a Constitutional Convention, composed of delegates from every county in the State, would agree to such a proposition than that a majority of a Legislature similarly apportioned would do the same thing. In fact, the probability is not half so great, for the fixing of county boundaries by Constitutional provision is a precedent which will not be at all likely to be established by any Constitutional Convention in the State of Nevada.

The changes in the submitted Constitution are, in the main, good ones, and we believe that they will meet the approval of a large majority of the people. The one which we have particularly mentioned, however, while it might have been properly introduced in the address, as a matter for legislative consideration, is, in our opinion, out of place in the body of the proposed Constitution. It should not, however, have any weight in influencing the action of the voters in regard to the main question.

STEALING REPUBLICAN THUNDER

The California Democratic Convention adopted a plank in its platform demanding the free coinage of silver and that it be made a legal tender for all debts, public and private. The Republicans in Congress and the Republican Administration, however, have already taken a long step towards the fulfillment of the conditions demanded by the California Democrats. Thanks to the Silver bill, the 41 2/3 grain dollar is now worth 90 cents in bullion, and the condition is rapidly approaching when free coinage can be entered upon without the possibility of the disturbance in values, which has been the bugaboo of the gold bugs from the commencement of the fight. The white metal is likely to be at par before the next session of Congress, and for the legislation which has accomplished these results, the country is indebted exclusively to the party in opposition to the one which in California so clamorously demands what has already so nearly been consummated. Silver depreciated steadily during the Cleveland Administration, and no Democrat will pretend to assert that if Cleveland had been re-elected the bill which has produced such satisfactory results would have become a law. But when a Republican measure has raised silver to par the Democrats would like to claim the credit of a free coinage law. The California Convention with singular inconsistency passed a resolution endorsing Mr. Cleveland's administration, its mono-metalism and all. It should have omitted one or the other of the planks, which will never dovetail in a Democratic platform. Mr. Cleveland, although he expressed his opinion freely upon all other public questions, while the Silver bill was pending in Congress, was as dumb as an oyster upon that particular subject, and never a word has been printed as coming from him to indicate any change of opinion upon the coinage question since he penned that remarkable letter to A. J. Warner, but practically addressing it to the For-y-eighth Congress. Cleveland's views upon the silver question might not be so important as in 1893, but his present silence on one of the significant facts of the times. The Democracy of the West must either drop Mr. Cleveland, and quit endorsing his administration, or else abandon its pretension of sincerity in favor of free coinage, for the two positions are in direct opposition, one to the other.

The report of probable revolution in Hawaii is merely putting in shape what has been in the air for some time. From the social and constitutional point of view the National Reform party is probably in the right, but practical considerations outweigh logic and abstractions. The Hawaiian question is one of civilization and the natives have, as yet, hardly demonstrated their capability of solving it. In the event of an outbreak the Nipais, in conjunction with the American element ashore will probably be able to take care of American interests.

In view of the rise in silver, says the S. F. Bulletin, would it be possible to make anything more than "milling propositions" out of any of the Comstock mines. If a great deal of what has been said from time to time can be believed, there is abundance of low grade ore there which has failed to pay dividends for years past by a very narrow margin. The Comstock is run for all it will make—for the managers. If any change is possible it is about time to make it.

F. G. NEWLANDS.

He Arrives From Nevada on a Flying Visit.

Mr. F. G. Newlands, the well-known millionaire attorney, has arrived in town after an absence of over a year in the East and in Nevada, says the San Francisco Post. He is staying at the Palace, which he will probably make his residence during his visit to the city. Mr. Newlands is deeply interested at present in the future of Nevada, and his permanent abode is at Reno. Besides the irrigation enterprises there is also a colonization scheme of considerable magnitude which he has originated, and its development is being watched with close attention by the people of the State, with whom Mr. Newlands is extremely popular.

Within the past two weeks a deputation of leading citizens of Carson, Reno and Virginia City wrote Mr. Newlands a letter, requesting him to accept the nomination for Congress for that State. He has not yet done so although in reply he said that it was possible that if his name came up he might consent to accept the candidacy.

Business interests of importance connected with the Sharon estate, of which he is a trustee, demanded his presence here, and his visit may be prolonged for several weeks.

Blaine Not a Candidate.

A Washington special to the Times has the following alleged trustworthy news: A close and intimate friend of Blaine is said to have asked him quite recently whether he would under any circumstances be a candidate for the Presidency in 1892, or whether he would allow his friends to push his cause before the National Convention. The Secretary in reply declared in a most positive way that he had no intention of becoming a Presidential candidate, and did not care to pose even as a possibility. He had no doubt his friends would be delighted to bring his name before the Republican Convention if they could obtain a single word from him permitting them to do so, but he added emphatically he did not intend to give that word.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-57-7

Death of W. W. Bishop.

The well known lawyer and former resident of Nevada, W. W. Bishop, died in San Francisco last Tuesday. He had been ailing for several months, and his death was not unexpected. Deceased was a lawyer of much more than ordinary ability and one of the best political stump speakers that ever canvassed the State of Nevada. He was a brother of Dr. Bishop of the Asylum here, and an uncle to Dr. Lee of Carson. He had a host of friends in this State who will sincerely regret to learn of his demise.

An Accident.

Mr. Thomas Meyers, son-in-law of C. W. Friend and engineer in the Holmes mill at Candelaria, met with a painful accident while at work last Friday. His right hand got caught some way in the machinery, and before he could extricate it the thumb was broken and the hand badly mangled. He came to Carson last evening, says the Tribune, and a physician attended to the injuries. It is hard to tell, as yet, what the result will be, but it is hoped the hand will not lose its usefulness.

She Had Done a Good Day's Business.

An ancient Irish dame has a small stand close by the Franklin statue in Printing house square from which she offers to passersby the cool and refreshing lemonade. If there is wind anywhere it always seems to find a funnel up Spruce street, and Boreas was doing some of his best work on his favorite thoroughfare one day.

A young woman in her best bib and tucker, with the inevitable young man, was crossing from the postoffice in the direction of the bridge. A particularly strong puff of wind nearly blew off her hat, bristling with meadow flowers, and all her attention was given to keeping it on her head. The rude breeze, however, took charge of her dress, and as it blew around got entangled with the only three glasses Bridget had on her stand. They fell on the flags, to be simply smashed into smithereens.

For a moment there was silence, then the owner, in pure Hibernian, gave vent to her feelings, and the language was not really ladylike. The young man was, however, equal to the occasion, and diving into his pocket produced and gave to Celtic Hebe a dollar bill. The latter looked at the note for some seconds and then disappeared into that undiscovered country, so far as men are concerned—a woman's pocket. Jack and Jill had passed on; of this the vendor of cool drinks made certain. She then deliberately took up her bucket of water, dashed it on the ground, picked up her lemons, and folding up her temporary stand made a bee line for home. She had done a good day's business.—New York Tribune.

Mr. Armour and the Bootblack.

A bootblack walked into the office of Mr. Armour. He had none of his outfit with him, but the bootblack was stained in his face and all over him. He went to the gate where a guard stands between his post and the greatest packer in the world.

"Where's de old man?" asked the urchin.

The guard told the boy to get out. "You tell de ole man dat I want to see him. I want to see him alone. I don't want to bother you nor de ole man. But I want to see de ole man, an' I want to see him right off."

Mr. Armour at his desk overhead the ragged request. "Let that boy come in here," he called to the young man at the gate. The urchin approached Mr. Armour in a business like way. There were no preliminary compliments.

"Say," spoke the urchin, "I took a nap out dere in de alley, and while I was asleep some o' dem kids from the board o' trade come along and swiped (stole) my kit an' I'm short. I want ter borrow a dollar to buy me a kit an' I'll pay you back on de stallment plan. See?"

Mr. Armour handed the boy two silver dollars and told him to go. But the boy handed back one of the dollars and said:

"I doan' want but one. I'm goin' to pay it back, and dere's no use o' a man goin' in deeper'n his head. I allus keep my head above de water."

The truth of the above story is vouched for by one who saw the scene and overheard the conversation.—Chicago Tribune.

Characteristic of Dumas.

A very characteristic letter of Alexander Dumas was received by the director of the Cluny museum, in which the former announces his intention of presenting to the museum the sword of the Marquis de Pescara, which has been left to him by E. de Beaumont. M. Dumas gives the reason for his liberality as follows: "I had engaged to leave the sword after my death to the Cluny museum, but I know the collectors, amateurs and directors of museums. In their fondness for a rarity they go so far as to wish for the death of those to whom it belongs, especially if they are the heirs. I do not wish to expose your conscience to a painful battle, for it would be sure to fight, perhaps successfully, for the possession of the weapon. I therefore offer you at once the sword of the vanquisher of Pavie and the vanquished of Ravenna. And now, dear sir, as you can no longer see any reason why I should not live a very long time yet, let me assure you that while I live I shall always be your devoted friend. A. DUMAS."

Signing Your Name 100 Miles Away.

One of the marvels of electricity, and one of the most striking of the Edison exhibits at the Paris exposition, was the little instrument which enables the operator to sign a check 100 miles distant. The writing to be transmitted is impressed on soft paper with an ordinary stylus. This is mounted on a cylinder, which, as it revolves, "makes and breaks" the electric current by means of the varying indentations on the paper. At the receiving end of the wire a similar cylinder, moving in accurate synchronism with the other, receives the current on a chemically prepared paper, on which it transcribes the signature in black letters on a white ground.—Exchange.

What He Missed.

Uncle Silas Greening, visiting his niece in the city, was taken one day to see the chrysanthemum show. The old man is of a practical turn and seldom hesitates to speak his mind.

"Well, uncle," said his niece, after their return home, "how did you like the exhibition?"

"Wal, to tell ye the truth, Elviry, I didn't think much on't."

"Why, what was the matter with it?"

"Matter? Why, there wasn't so much as a single punkin in the whole show!"—Youth's Companion.

The Work of Writing a Book.

Dumas once said that it was the easiest thing in the world to write a book. You had only to seat yourself in a leather covered chair at a library table well supplied with blue paper and a certain kind of pen and ink, and proceed to write; but before you began, before you seated yourself or wrote the first word, you should have given ten years of thought to the subject on which you intended to write.—Western.

Death of a Foot-Racer.

The Grass Valley Telegraph pays the following tribute to the memory of a man well known in many of the towns in Nevada:

"Harry M. Johnson, the world's greatest foot-racer, died in San Francisco at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been sick here for a time with typhoid fever and had sufficiently recovered to go to San Francisco to train for the world's championship race which takes place in St. Louis in October. Johnson was taken with inflammation of the bowels and died yesterday. His character as a man was vastly different from the most of those of his profession. He was well educated, temperate, kind and generous and always good natured. Nature endowed him with that splendid physical form, and the mind seemed to be a part of the body—beant on using the forces that nature gave him, but never in cruel or unmanly way. There are many here who would throw a flower on poor Johnson's grave."

Death of Col. Dow.

Col James C. Dow, an old resident of Ormsby and Elko counties in this State, died in Union county, Oregon, on the 20th inst. He was once elected a member of the Assembly from Elko, and was well known throughout the State. His daughter, Mrs. Marshall, resides at Portland, Oregon, and his son, Nat, formerly an employee in the Carson Mint, is living in San Francisco.

Justice Court.

James Wilson, the Mexican wife-beater, was sentenced to 50 days in the county jail.

James Curry, drunk and disorderly, 6 days.

John Walker, same charge, plead not guilty. Trial at 10 o'clock this a. m.

Francis McNeil, who has either the jim jams or is a sure-enough crank, is in jail and will appear before his Honor to-day.

In Full Blast.

The Mill City Reduction Works, owned by Peter Woolcock, says the Silver State, are now in full blast under the management of W. T. O'Hara and J. C. Hadley. The mill is crushing ore from the Humboldt Queen mine, of which Superintendent Sutherland has agreed to furnish a thousand tons.

Remedy for Nose Bleeding.

An eminent physician says: "The best remedy for bleeding at the nose is a vigorous motion of the jaws as in the act of mastication. In the case of a child a wad of paper should be placed in its mouth. It is the motion of the jaws that stops the flow of blood." If the physician is correct gum chewing funds should be exempt from taxation at the nose.

BREVITIES.

Bar silver 110 1/2.

R. L. Fulton went below last night.

Hon. T. B. Riekey returned from San Francisco yesterday.

Paint your house with the best mixed paints. Sold by Lange & Schmitt.

Attorneys Mayenbaum and W. D. Jones came down from Carson last night.

Joe Stewart came down from the Comstock last night and went on to California.

T. K. Hymers and party have returned from their camping tour to Webster Lake.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for garden hose, garden tools, and agate ware. Largest stock in the city.

Gen. Clarke took the Tuesday night's train for San Francisco and expected to return this morning.

Mrs. S. O. Wells and daughter, and Miss Blanche Pioneer returned yesterday from southern California.

Miss Alice Tobriner and sister, of Carson, passed through here yesterday on their return from San Francisco.

Half a ton of paper, belonging to the Silver State, was wrecked on the train which was demolished at Osgood.

State Senator Boyle and family arrived on yesterday's number 8 from California and took the V. & T. for Virginia City.

A lady in Carson dresses her children in their bathing suits, distributes them on the front lawn, and then turns the hose on them.

An Ogden undertaking establishment uses as its motto on its letter head, "Live and let live." No doctors are connected with the firm.

Mr. Colecord and State Senator Forbes came in on the V. & T. last night and will leave this morning for the eastern part of the State.

We understand that it is decided to hold the Democratic State Convention in the Pavilion, and that the building has been engaged for that purpose.

We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the first report of the National Executive Silver Committee, appointed at the St. Louis Convention in November, 1889.

A telegram has been received from Theodore Winters, who is in the East, stating that he has sold his entire stable of racing stock, except El Rio Rey, for $85,000.

The Salvationists have adopted a religious song to the air of "Little Annie Rooney." Probably they think the devil has had a monopoly of the tune long enough.

Mike Independent, John S. Mayhugh and family left Saturday night for the Pyramid Indian Reservation, where Mr. Mayhugh will enumerate the Indians in that locality.

The amount of silver offered to the Treasury Department yesterday was 1,911,000 ounces, of which 133,000 ounces were purchased at $1 19, 115,000 at $1 19 1/2, and 323,000 at $1 19 1/4.

The Storey County Delegation met last Saturday evening with Euoch Stotter as Chairman and Chas. Mack as Secretary. It organized, adopted the unit roll as far as Ring was concerned and adjourned.

E. Warren, a prominent real estate man of Ogden, passed through here yesterday from the west. He had been up on Puget Sound to take a look at that section, but found nothing there to tempt him to leave his present location in Utah.

Big Gold Discovery.

A dispatch from Helena, Montana, of the 26th inst., says. The scene of the Tongue river excitement, though properly in Wyoming, is on Montana's border, and many believe extends into the State. The excitement in Northwest Wyoming has reached fever heat and a regular stampede from Dayton and Sheridan has set in. A number of persons have been in town during the week from the diggings and report the discovery to be very rich in placer gold and that as high as $25 a day has been made to the man. The only difficulty is the scarcity of water as the dirt has to be hauled about a mile to secure sufficient quantity to wash the gold.

For District Judge.

In mentioning probable candidates on the Republican State ticket from Elko county, says the Independent, we inadvertently omitted the name of George F. Talbot, who will be a candidate for District Judge. There is a probability that Judge Biglow will be appointed United States District Judge, in which event he will not be a candidate for a State office.

Central District.

L. F. Dunn, says the Silver State, headed the Millionaire mice in Central District, from A. H. Rose and his son S. W. Rose. Some California men are about to buy the mine, and one of them, Charles Mauber, is now having samples of ore taken from all parts of the mine, and will test it by working process. If the test is satisfactory, the mine will be sold.

Threatened Revolution.

A press dispatch from Seattle, dated August 24th says: The next advances from the Hawaiian Islands will probably bring news of a revolution and of a declaration of a republic. Such at least is the opinion of Admiral Browne, who arrived here on the United States Flagship Charleston last night. The Charleston left Honolulu on August 7th.

"STUDENT" BRAKEMEN.

One of the Grievances of Southern Pacific Employees.

"Do you see that boy," said to a S. F. Call reporter one of the dissatisfied train men, who will probably inaugurate a strike on the Southern Pacific in a few days "He is not a railroad man. He is what we call a 'student,' and has been here only four days. In about four days more the conductor will give him a note to the Division Superintendent stating that he, the student, is qualified to perform a freight brakeman's duties. Then he will be sent out on a run, perhaps the best regular run on the system, while an older and better railroad man 'a sure enough railroad man,' is kept on the extra list and obliged to report day after day without getting even an hour's work."

"This is one of the abuses we are going to correct, and regarding this matter the men will not move an inch. Together with the increase of wages, these are the two most important demands in the whole schedule, though there are many other minor causes of grievances which it was thought best to at least attempt to readjust while we were in the readjustment business."

White Pine Whittlings

News, August 23d.

It is reported that Indian George, while in a drunken frenzy, killed his squaw last week on the trip out to Currant creek to the landings.

A trial lot of 14 tons of Chapman ore, worked at the Monitor mine last week, netted $325 in gold and $29 in silver to the ton. A fine showing for a valuable property.

At the examination of Indian Al last Sunday, before Justice W. Bar, for the cutting of Jack Bliss, the prisoner was discharged, the evidence showing he only acted in self-defense.

Mrs. Josephine Walcott has sent to this office a little volume of poems, entitled "World of Song," bearing her copyright 1878. A casual inspection of the little volume reveals some beautiful gems of poetic thought and feeling in well arranged verse. This shows the lady to be not only a bright business woman, but an author of considerable note.

Messrs. Lyons, McGill, McOmie and Underhill have bonded their mines, the Chairman, Chairman-Gore, Turkey, Southern Cross and V to Wm. Rand, Superintendent of the Eberhardt-Monitor mines at Taylor. The bond extends to February 1, 1891, and the amount the property is bonded for runs high up in the figures, though not above what its present fine outlook warrants.

Last Saturday G. C. Brown sold his third interest in the Rob Boy mine and mill belonging thereto. He also disposed of his interest in some ten other claims in this district. The purchasers were Capt. Carpenter and Mr. Eggleston of Kansas, who have been operating here for several months. Mr. Brown departed by Monday morning's stage for his old home in the East, with more money in his pocket than he has seen for many years.

Mary Has Her Way.

Mary Anderson, now Madame Navarro, has announced that she will fulfill her contract with Manager Abbey to appear in America next winter in her favorite characters. Mary is quoted as saying to a friend "that to set aside her contract with Mr. Abbey would entail a very great loss upon him and would be manifest injustice to him—that the contract still holds in spite of her marriage, and that although she herself is reluctant and 'Tony' is unwilling, she should, without doubt, be Mary Anderson to the public for one winter more, and then Mr. Antonio Navarro, and that alone for all years to come."

Coming With a Hoe.

C. P. Huntington writes to a friend in California:

"I expect to go to California in a few weeks, and stop for a considerable time, and look now although I should it I suppose of most of my railroads the side of the Mississippi, and that very soon. As soon as that is done I shall expect to spend nearly all of my time in California, and hope to be able in the near future to weed out all of those who are on the railroad payrolls receiving railroad money for political work. I know it is for the best interest of the railroad that this be done, and I am equally sure that it is for the best interest of the State.

Yours, very truly,

C. P. HUNTINGTON."

The Governorship.

As the Democratic party in this State does not seem to have any aspirants for Governor, what's the matter with our fellow townsman, R. Sadler, as a candidate for the position? The "boss" is popular all over the State.—Eureka Sentinel.

Reinhold Sadler is an energetic wide-awake, sensible business man and there is nothing whatever the matter with him as a candidate for Governor, Mr. Sentinel. Over this way the popular current tends towards Winters of Washoe, who was favorably mentioned for the place four years ago. Both men are thoroughly identified with the interests of the State and either of them would make a good Governor, Silver State.

A Nevada in the East.

The JOURNAL is in receipt of a letter dated at Philadelphia, August 19th from E. C. Harry, of Elko county, who is now on a business and pleasure trip in the East. The writer had visited Atlantic City, where there are more people this Summer than ever before. He also visited Cape May, President Harrison's Summer resort, but could discern nothing particularly elegant about the place or its surroundings. Mr. Harry will soon return to Nevada to remain.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.

No Fears of a Strike on the Southern Pacific.

The rumor, says the Silver State, that a strike is imminent on the Southern Pacific railroad system is said by railroad men to be wholly without foundation. Freight conductors and brakemen on the California divisions complained that they were not receiving as good wages as men in Nevada and some of the men on the Humboldt and Salt Lake Divisions, that propositions were made out of order. Grievance committees appointed by the Order of Conductors and Brotherhood of Brakemen, were sent to railroad headquarters at San Francisco, where General Manager Isaacs, General Superintendent Fillmore, Assistant Superintendent Pratt, Division Superintendents Whitely, of Truckee, Myrick, of Humboldt, Knapp, of Salt Lake, Wright, of Sacramento, Wilder, of Oakland, Muir, of Los Angeles and Dietrich, of Visalia, met them and discussed the situation with them, the committee having presented their case in writing. The men were given to understand that their demands would receive earnest consideration and no fears whatever were entertained of a strike.

Satisfactory All Around.

The JOURNAL's statement that the decision in the case of W. E. Price vs. the Virginia & Gold Hill Water Company was regarded here as favorable to the plaintiff, was based upon the opinions of disinterested persons who were present at the trial. Their opinions were founded upon the fact that defendant was prohibited from diverting the water of Ophir Creek, except during the months when plaintiff has no use for it. The Enterprise considers the decision as favorable to defendants. It is a matter of congratulation, at all events, that both parties are satisfied, a result seldom attained by the rendering of a judicial decision.

A Spookmark Swindler.

An old man named Robinson, traveling from Ogden to Denver, exchanged $100 in greenbacks for five "spookmarks" made to resemble $20 gold pieces on one side. The train was just pulling out of Ogden, and the confidence operator jumped off and escaped.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings, which cause painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develop ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula, and she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Nauright, N. J.

RULES OF THE TRACK.

Entrance to all trotting and running races to close with the Secretary 9 o'clock P. M., on Wednesday, August 20, 1890.

All entries to be made in writing, to give sex, color and name of horse, and name of owner, and in running races colors to be worn by rider, and any other particulars that will enable the audience to distinguish the horse in the race.

Entrance to races on outside of envelope and seal.

Entrance fee, 10 per cent of purse—to accompany entries.

In all races five or more to enter and three or more to start.

National Association Rules to govern trotting, but the Board reserves the right to trot heats or any two classes alternately, if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between the heats, or change the order of races advertised for any day.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board no horse is qualified to be entered in any District race (6) months prior to the day of the race, and any entry by any person of any disqualified horse shall be held liable for the entrance fee contracted, without right to compete for a purse, and shall be held liable to penalties prescribed by the National Association and Rules of the State Agricultural Society, and expulsion from the Association.

If, in the opinion of the Judges, any race cannot be completed on the closing day of the Fair, it may be continued or declared off at the option of the Judges.

In all races noted above, five or more paid up entries required to fill and three or more horses to start, but the Board reserves the right to hold entries and start race with fewer than the number and to a proportionate amount of the purse.

When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows: 6 to 4, and 3 to 1, and 2 to 1.

Rules of the State Agricultural Society to govern running races except where conditions named are otherwise.

Any person not intending to start his horse must notify the Secretary in writing on or before 6 o'clock the evening previous to the day of the race.

Horses entered in races can only be drawn by consent of the Judges.

For a walkover in any race a horse shall only be entitled to his own entrance fee and one-half of the entrance received from other entries for said purse; and a horse winning a race entitled to first money only, except when distancing the field, then entitled to first and third moneys only. A horse wins but one money under any other circumstances.

The attention of all parties interested in particularly called to the rules of the National Trotting Association, under provisions of which, except as otherwise specified, all matters pertaining to the trotting races will be conducted.

Races begin each day at 1 o'clock P. M., sharp.

INSURANCE.

THE

Insurance Company.

Assets, $12,000,000.

The history of the past has proven beyond a question that an endowment policy in a life insurance company is a much

BETTER INVESTMENT

Than a savings bank; FIRST, because it is very much safer—as the law of the State of New York requires every life insurance company to keep a

Reserve in First-Class Securities

Equal to its liabilities, dollar for dollar; SECOND, in case of death while making these small deposits, the life insurance company will pay, just when most needed by the family, the

Full Amount

Of the sum insured, amounting to 10, 20, or even 30 times as much as has been deposited; or on the

Return Premium

Plan of the MANHATTAN, they would do even more than this, for they would at death pay the face of the policy and in addition all the deposits (premiums) paid, while the savings bank would only return the amounts actually deposited with interest.

Who would not purchase a valuable piece of property—a farm for example—worth $10,000, if he could have twenty years to pay for it, in small sums of $300 per annum with interest on deferred payments and without any tax on it? The $300 per year being only 3 per cent of the $10,000—a sum not much greater than that paid annually for taxes on property in hand, of the same cost, and especially if he could have the further conditions specially stated in the contract, 1st, that if he dies while making these payments—even after one only has been made—

No Further Payments Shall be Required

And the full title in fee simple to the entire farm shall at once be given to his family; and 2d, that if at any time after the three years during the twenty years he shall be unable to continue the payments and from sickness or any misfortune, that then he could discontinue any further payments and have in fee simple such portions of the farm as he has paid for; thus, if one-fourth of the payments had been made, he would own one separate fourth of the farm, and at the same time the farm be entirely free from all claims of creditors, under all circumstances, not even to be reached by writ of execution or attachment issued by any court, while if living to the end of the twenty years and the annual payments have been made, the

Entire Property in Fee Simple is secured.

Now the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY offers all this and more, for instead of offering LAND on these terms, which is often eaten up by legal expenses and fees in case of the death of the purchaser, or swallowed up by a mortgage given to secure deferred payments, thus losing the whole amount paid in and leaving the family destitute, or dependent, it offers a

Specific Bond Secured by Millions of First-Class Securities.

Agreeing to pay MONEY on the same terms and conditions as above—the cost per year varying at different ages, but otherwise substantially the same terms as above stated, while the sum to be paid at the end of twenty years will be increased by dividends and compounded interest for the full term, thus making the investment a very PROFITABLE and ADVANTAGEOUS one.

Inquiries concerning the bonds of this company will receive prompt reply if addressed to mously adopted:Resolved, That this committee reaffirms the State and National Republican platform of 1888, including the declaration that "the Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as a medium of exchange" and that it "condemns all efforts to demonetize silver."Resolved, That the persistent neglect of Secretary Windsor to increase the coinage of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month coupled with his attempt to influence Congressional legislation so as to perpetuate silver
